CHICAGO, THURSDAY, JUNE 15, 1899.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

HAWTHORNE RACING.

The fact that there was to be a steeplechase over the handsome course at Hawthorne yesterday proved a great drawing card and the crowd was by far the largest of any since the opening. It numbered fully 5,000.

The steeplechase was a joke so far as a contest was concerned, but it furnished an amusing spectacle and the crowd seemed to thoroughly enjoy it. Five started, but only one, Chenier, finished. That is, he was the only horse that went the course without making a mistake.

At the very first fence Sir Hobart refused. At the sixth both Del Coronado and Oxnard ran out of the course. This left Chenier and Jack Hayes to fight it out. The pair raced within reach of one another to the eighth obstacle. Here one of Morrissey's stirrup leathers gave way and he was unseated. Chenier went on by himself and amid deafening applause cantered home with first money.

In the meantime Kidd and Johnson had remounted their horses Del Coronado and Oxnard respectively and were struggling to make the rounds and get second and third places. After falling off, Morrissey did not feel like chasing after Jack Hayes, but Jimmy Boyd, who is a clever cross-country rider, did, and after catching the horse away up on the far turn brought him back to where Morrissey fell off and going over the course succeeded in getting second place. This pleased the crowd tremendously and for an instant Boyd was the hero of the day. Del Coronado came in several minutes later and got third place.

Will Woodard and his friends made an old fashioned killing on The Devil in the nine furlong race. It was third on the card and had but four starters, and on paper looked to be strictly between Al Fresco and Rifle. Both were heavily played. The Woodard contingent, however, had something up their sleeve, and after The Devil had drifted from 6 to 1 back to 3 to 1 they flooded the ring and backed the colt down to 5 to 1. Evidently each of the boys that rode had waiting orders, the consequence was that there was no strong pace made. This was all in The Devil's favor, and when it came to a sprint through the last quarter he easily out-footed the others and won with a lot left. Rifle was second and Al Fresco, who did not near run his race, third.

There was a fortune taken out of the ring, and Will Woodard is credited with winning $14,600.

Mr. H. L. Frank was a visitor at the track and in the first race of the day had the pleasure of seeing his colors in front. They were worn by Mallakawa, who was backed from 6 to 5 down to 4 to 5. Beauchamp rode the colt, and after a bumping finish through the stretch with Ostra, beat the filly by a neck.

Indian showed a decided liking for the track and won the three-quarter dash for two-year-olds off by himself. He was a 7 to 1 chance and had little or no support. The odds-on favorite, Onota, led the field to the stretch, but "dogged it" when Indian got to her and had to be hard ridden to beat Olive Order for the place.

Theresa H., ridden by a midget named Grimes, who seems to understand his business, won the fifth race, and The Dauphin, long overdue, and at 8 to 1, cantered home in the sixth. The latter was entered to be sold for $300 but was run up $600 by Thomas Costello. The colt was retained for the odd five.

Arthur Newsom left last night for Latonia to see his horse Monongah run in the Himyar Stakes.

Jockey "Cash" Sloan is making a strong effort to get reinstated. He was suspended by Judge Murphy last winter at San Francisco for a ride on Abuse.

Jockeys Everett and "Skeets" Martin are expected at the track this week.

THE SUBURBAN AT HAND.

The Suburban, the second of the two great handicaps that annually engage by far the greatest attention awarded such races by patrons of the turf, will be decided Saturday. In point of interest it promises to be fully up to the standard of its predecessors. There is a fair chance that its decision may be marked by an unprecedented feature. No horse has as yet carried off both the Brooklyn and Suburban, but many experts in racing problems think the feat is to be performed this year. Banastar's triumph in the Brooklyn was so easily achieved and the horse has done so well since in his training that it is reasonably possible that he may achieve unusual distinction as the first winner of the double event, despite the twelve pounds penalty incurred through winning the Brooklyn. However, there are many good horses engaged, and the issue of such a contest is always in the doubtful list. The best that can be said of any candidate is that he has a chance.

The horses deemed reasonably sure to start are Ben Holladay, 129, Banastar, 122, Briar Sweet, 121, St. Cloud, 119, Don d'Oro, 115, Bannockburn, 112, Bangle, 110, Warrenton, 110, Imp, 110, Fleur de Lis (now Maxine), 109, Candleblack, 107, Box, 106 and Star of Bethlehem, 95. Of this list Don d'Oro may be an absentee because of a recent injury. This leaves twelve apparently sure starters with such possibilities as The Huguenot, 119, George Boyd, 110, Previous, 110, Tragedian, 110, Latson, 105, Azucena, 104, St. Callatine, 103, Thomas Cat, 100, Millstream, 97 and Jeannot, 95, as a reserve from which other starters may come. Filigrane was handicapped at ninety-eight pounds, but his success in the Metropolitan Handicap raised his impost to 110 pounds and presumably made his case hopeless as far as the Suburban is concerned. George Keene, 114, is sound and favorably handicapped and may be a starter, but his running this year has not been of a character suggestive of a possible Suburban winner.

The splendid young mare Briar Sweet has received a long and careful preparation for this race, and her appearance in it will add greatly to its interest. Precedents are against her winning, especially with such high weight in the saddle, but she will be sure to run a great race. If a mare is to carry off the race it would seem more reasonable to select Imp. It is true her showing in the Brooklyn was not encouraging, but those who have seen the shapely daughter of Wagner at her best on Chicago tracks know that she by no means ran up to her highest capacity in that race. Her mile and an eighth yesterday in 1:53 1/4 with 126 pounds in the saddle suggests that she is now in her true form and bound to be formidable in the great event at Sheephead Bay. But the fatal objection remains that great mares have often tried before for Suburban fame and none has succeeded. If the honors of the race are to come west popular Pat Dunne's Bannockburn seems more likely to be the horse to effect the triumph than speedy Imp.

Winner—Ch. f, by Falseito—Glimpse. Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won driving. Gaze handled the weight well and stood the closing drive gamely. The price was a liberal one. Rhinelanders a good race and will do hereafter. Primate weakened at the end. He was outrun by Gaze all the way. Momentum showed some speed but was outclassed. Filon d'Or is good now. Swiftmas closed a big gap under a strong ride. Heliobas got a bad break and could never get up. Judge Tarvin was coughing and should not have started. Kingdon had no chance with the start and handling he got. Star of Bethlehem showed speed.

Scratched—12472 Kinnikinnick, 126; (12580) Ben Hadad, 105; 11648 Lady Exile, 92. Gaze, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Rhinelanders, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Swiftmas, show, 8 to 5. Heliobas, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Bik. m, by Wagner—Fondling. Off at first break to a good start. Won easily. Imp is at her best. The weight did not bother her and she galloped unextended all the way. Pirate M. ran a corking good race and is dangerous at any time with light weight up. Warrenton couldn't handle the weight successfully. Intrusive was held out of it too long. He closed ground at the end, but was outclassed at the weights. Bon Ino did not run to form. The Gardener is a very fair selling plater and very good now.

Scratched—12657 Maxine, 112; 12543 Survivor, 109; 11666 Hardy C., 93. Imp, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Pirate M., place, 8 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Warrenton, show, 1 to 2. Intrusive, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 3.

Winner—Ch. c, by Spendthrift—Taratella. Post 9 minutes. Start fair. Won easily. Gulden drew away without an effort at the end. The Corinthian was not well handled. Creeper ran a good race for the first time out and should not remain a maiden long. Vevuvian was smartly played and had a little speed. It was a moderate lot. Gulden, place, 6 to 1; show, 2 to 1. The Corinthian, place, 2 to 5; show, out. Creeper, show, 7 to 5.

Winner—Ch. h, by Prince Royal—Merry Nell. Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive. The last mile was run in 1:39 3/4. Merry Prince closed very fast under a vigorous ride and got the money in the last stride. Charentus is very good. Clawson was too confident after he got the lead and it cost him the race. Continental had his usual speed but did not seem to like the distance. Maximo Gomez ran a good race after his long let-up. Alpen won't do. Handball's bad leg got hot and he finished very lame. Scratched—12606 Howard Mann, 103; 12623 Roysterer, 89; 12441 Diminutive, 84. Overweights—Maximo Gomez, 2 pounds. Merry Prince, place, 6 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Charentus, place, 7 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily. Peat was much the best and came away at the end on call. Holdon closed strong. Ed Tipton was heavily played. He showed a lot of speed but evidently did not like the distance. Fenetta will do among the common ones. Varus swerved at the first turn and came near causing trouble. He sulked afterwards. Crawford was pulled up.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. The first two finished in a hard drive. They were all out and stopping from the fast pace in the early part of the race. Cringe closed strong. Manilla stopped after going a half. Mischance ran a fair race under poor riding and will bear watching in this kind of company with a better rider. Dashaway ran a poor race and is a rank quitter. Julia Hazel ran a fair race. Periwig was lucky in the end off and ran well.

Winner—Ch. g. by Kaiser—Mamie Cole.
Off at first break to a good start. Won easily; second the same. George Krats is in good form and easily outran the others. The Lady in Blue was slow to get in motion and was used too much in the earlier stages. Guide Rock is a greatly improved horse over his last year's form and is better at a distance than formerly. Horace has apparently gone back. He ran fairly well to the stretch and then retired. Three Bars is in bad form. Carl C. ran disappointingly.
Scratched—12671 Samovar, 108.

Winner—Ch. c. by Inverness—Missoula.
Post 13 minutes. Start good. Won driving and out to the last ounce; second driving and staggering. Mallakawa was the best as the race was run. He was in a good position all the way and at the head of the stretch seemed to be coming away as he pleased, but in the last furlong he tired badly and was lucky to win. He bore in on Ostra and McNickie claimed a foul. The claim, however, was not allowed. Ostra stopped and came again. She does not like a route and at her best is not of much account. Martha Fox could not manage the weight. Heroics ran his race at the post. Everything considered it was an inferior lot.
Mallakawa, place, out; show, out. Ostra, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Martha Fox, show, 1 to 3.

Winner—Ch. c. by Huron—Square Dance.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily at the end after an early drive; second and third were doing their best. Indian liked the track and ran a good race. When he got to Onota the latter quit. Vitatos rode a good race on the winner. Onota is a speedy youngster, but cannot now go the route. She was tired enough to lie down at the finish. Still, the early pace was fast and this probably was the principal cause of her quitting. Olive Order came stoutly through the stretch. Barrack suffered from bad handling. Better ridden, he would have been a contender. Hanan took the long route, wobbled all over the colt and did everything but fall off.
Overweights—Dr. Tarr, 3 pounds.

Time, 13, 26, 38, 53, 1:04, 1:16, 1:29, 1:43, 1:55.

Winner—B. c. by Major Richards—Patagonia.
Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily at the end; the others were driving. The race was run precisely to suit The Devil. The early pace was very slow and The Devil clearly outstripped the others through the stretch. His race was not out of line in the least. The last time he started he was badly messed about and almost thrown. Beauchamp could not do Rife justice. He was no help whatever to the horse who is very heavy-headed and needs strong handling. The weight seemed to anchor Al Fresco. The fact that there was no strong pace set handicapped him also. Monk Wayman stopped to a walk in the stretch.
The Devil, place, 3 to 2. Rifle, place, 3 to 5. Al Fresco, place, out.
